Second Sunday of Easter Christ the King News March 30, 2008

In today's gospel the risen Christ appears to the disciples and offers them the gift of peace. Even amid doubts and questions, we experience the resurrection in our Sunday gathering around word and meal, and in our everyday lives. Throughout the coming Sundays of Easter the first two readings will be from the Acts of the Apostles and the first letter of Peter. Even as the early Christians proclaimed the resurrection, we rejoice in the new birth and living hope we receive in baptism.

Christ the King now offers Electronic Giving for those of you who wish to have your contributions transferred electronically to the church's account. If you travel or have a busy life, this is particularly helpful in keeping up with your intended offerings. It allows you to avoid having to make up the difference later. NCD @ CTK

(or Natural Church Development at Christ the King!)

In previous installments of the CTK news, the Health Committee has been working to provide you with information about the NCD process, activities associated with that process, and what to expect in the coming weeks and months. What we're doing together as we enter this NCD process is evaluating ourselves as a congregation, based on well-researched principles for how healthy churches grow even healthier. Then we'll prayerfully use that "head" knowledge and get busy, sinking our hands into the soil of who we are as a growing body of Christ.

This week we continue to share with you about the process of NCD by looking at 3 more of the 8 quality characteristics that we are self-evaluating. Here are some quotes from NCD materials to give you a "taste" of the "garden produce" to come:

~ Effective Structures: "Church structures are never an end in themselves but always a means to an end." What kind of self-renewal needs to happen so that our forms and ways really fulfill their purposes?

~ Inspiring Worship Service: Can we tell that the Holy Spirit is truly at work in our worship, inspiring us to live out our callings? "When the worship service is inspiring (and yes, even 'fun'), it draws people to the services 'all by itself'."

~ Holistic Small Groups: "Growing churches have developed a system of small groups where individual Christians can find intimate community, practical help, and intensive spiritual interaction."

Our review of the 8 quality characteristics continues next week. Look for a complete overview of these characteristics in the April edition of The Clarion. We also hope you can join us on April 26 (at 4:00) when we will review the results of our check-up and begin to think about what it means for CTK. Look for more details soon!

SWEET JUSTICE...COFFEE, TEA, CHOCOLATE FAIRLY TRADED

Available at CTK Sundays April 6, 13, and 20

"We all have to go shopping. Fair Trade is just shopping with respect," said Kwabena Ohemeng-Tinyase, a cocoa grower in Ghana. Make life a little sweeter and more just for farmers halfway around the world. Your purchases also give money to Lutheran World Relief and the many micro businesses they support and encourage. At 14, Ruth can see "sweet justice" in her community. Getting water once meant she had to walk for an hour. Now, a 10 minute walk to a pump is how she gets the family's daily supply of water. The money through fair traded products is "pumped" back into the community!

Part-time Employment for Caring Individuals Do you know someone helpful and kind who would like some part-time work? LSS SmartCare (a ministry of Lutheran Social Services) is in immediate need of care-givers in the Nashua area. The work would involve 6-12 hours/week, providing transportation, doing errands and light housekeeping. You may call Kari Keyl (603)-889-7537 if you are interested or if you have ideas on how to spread the word. Thank you for supporting LSS in their ministries of service to those in need!
