Elijah finds the presence of God not in earthquake, wind, or fire, but in the sound of sheer silence. When the disciples face a great storm on the sea, they cry out with fear. Jesus says: "Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid." Amid the storms of life, we gather to seek the calm presence of Christ that soothes our fears. In comforting words of scripture and in the refreshing bread and cup of the eucharist, God grants us peace and sends us forth to be a sign of God's presence to others.

Florence Nightingale, died 1910; Clara Maass, died 1901; renewers of society

Nightingale was born in England, and horrified her wealthy family by deciding to become a nurse. She led a group of nurses in ministering in the midst of the Crimean War, and worked for hospital reform. Maass, a native of New Jersey, was also a war nurse, and volunteered as a subject for research on yellow fever. She died of the disease.

Thursday, August 14

Maximilian Kolbe, died 1941; Kaj Munk, died 1944; martyrs

Father Kolbe was a Franciscan priest arrested by the Nazis and confined in Auschwitz. Kolbe gave generously of his meager resources, and finally volunteered to be starved to death in place of another man. A Danish Lutheran pastor and playwright, Munk strongly denounced the Nazis who occupied Denmark in the Second World War. His sermons and articles helped to show the anti-Christian nature of the movement.

Friday, August 15

Mary, Mother of Our Lord

The church (including Martin Luther) honored Mary with the title theotokos, meaning "God-bearer," for her role in giving birth to the Son of God. Her song, the Magnificat, speaks eloquently of God's lifting the lowly and feeding the hungry.

Your Voices Are Heard

CTK, your concerns about poverty, hunger, and disease, in our global community, were heard. Bobbie Knickerbocker, from Church Women United, joined Effie Hall and Deirdra Schmidt, from CTK, on June 30th, to talk with staff people of Senators Gregg and Sununu and Representative Hodes in their home offices in Nashua. Later, the office of Representative Shea-Porter also was contacted. Your letters supporting the Global Poverty Act asking for better coordination of programs to reduce poverty and to reach the Millennium Development Goals by 2015 had been sent ahead to the Washington offices of our Congressional Representatives.

Our advocacy efforts were strengthened by the artistic expressions of our youth and children which spoke volumes to say "Light up a Life, Don't Dim a Dream." These picture-letters were presented to the Nashua staffers and sent onto the Washington offices. Significant additional funding was recently passed to help fight malaria, HIV/AIDS, and TB throughout the world because our people in Washington heard the voices of voters like you.

Thank you!
