TWENTY-THIRDSUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST Christ the King News October 19, 2008

When the Pharisees try to trap Jesus, he tells them to give the emperor what belongs to him and to God what belongs to God. To gather for worship reminds us that our ultimate allegiance is to God rather than to any earthly authority. Created in the image of God, we offer our entire selves in the service of God and for the sake of the world.

CtK Cross Wall

The crosses shared on the altar for Holy Cross Day and others gathered since are now installed in the gathering area/breezeway. This accent wall showcases the central symbol of our faith and is a welcome addition to our church home. Please remember there is a standing invitation for you to add a cross that has special meaning for you to the wall at any time.

One item of note on the left side of the wall is the black Christ the King symbol which has "returned" to CtK. This item was previously affixed to the portable altar furniture CtK used before the church was built. Later when Messiah was formed as a mission start, the portable altar and pulpit were again utilized. After years of use, the well worn furniture was retired and the CtK symbol was removed and has now found its way home.

All are invited to join in this Celebration. For information contact Bobbie Knickerbocker, 579-0603.

COMMEMORATIONS FOR THE WEEK

Thursday, October 23, 2008

James of Jerusalem, martyr, died around 62

One of three early-church leaders named James, this man is identified in the New Testament and by a historian of the time as a brother of Jesus. Scholars are uncertain whether this means a blood brother. He was a leader of the church in Jerusalem.

Sunday, October 26

Philipp Nicolai, died 1608; Johann Heermann, died 1647; Paul Gerhardt, died 1676; hymnwriters

These great hymnwriters all worked in seventeenth-century Germany in times of war and plague. Nicolai, a pastor, lost 1,300 parishioners to plague, 170 in one week. He wrote "O Morning Star, how fair and bright" and "Wake, awake, for night is flying." Heermann's hymns, including "Ah, holy Jesus," often express the emotions of faith. Gerhardt, perhaps the greatest Lutheran hymnwriter, was a pastor in Berlin.

Vicar Bill Petersen is gathering a task force to assess how guests are welcomed, invited and integrated into membership at CtK. As part of his internship project on evangelism and hospitality, Vicar Bill will document what has happened historically; conduct an audit of current practices and report of recommendations to the congregation, one of which will be piloted in the spring. Join us on Sunday, October 19th following 10:30 worship for a discussion of evangelism and hospitality practices (past and present) and to learn more about the project.

Reformation Sunday is October 26th + Wear Red!

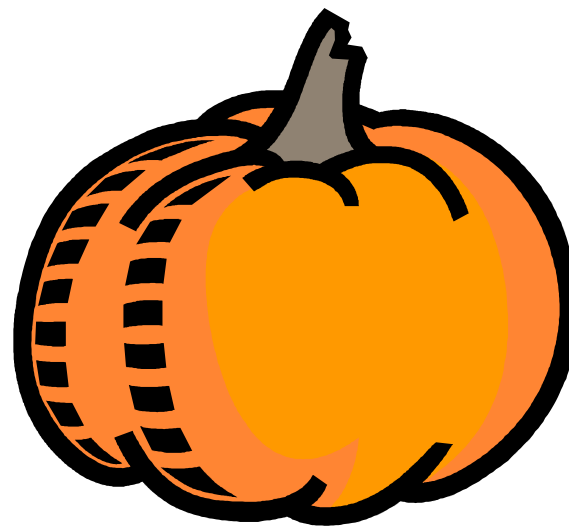

We mark Martin Luther's posting of the Ninety-five Theses on the door of the Castle Church in Wittenberg on Sunday, October 26th. By the end of the seventeenth century, many Lutheran churches celebrated a festival commemorating the 1517 posting of the Ninety-five Theses, a summary of abuses in the church of his time. We celebrate Luther's reminder that Scripture is at the heart of the reformation and that it is by grace through faith that we are justified with God and set free from the powers of sin, death and evil by wearing red and/or CtK t-shirts to worship.

Healing and Health

Our Lord Jesus healed many as a sign of the reign of God come near and sent the disciples to continue this work of healing. At both services today, we will offer an opportunity for anyone who senses the need for God's healing in any aspect of their lives to receive the gift of prayer and the laying on of hands, which may be accompanied by the anointing with oil. These signs first given in baptism, tell us again that we are sealed by the Holy Spirit and marked forever with the cross of Christ, who is health and salvation for the whole world.

In its ministry of healing, the church does not replace the gifts of God that come through the scientific community, nor does it promise a cure. Rather the church offers and celebrates gifts such as these:

God's presence with strength and comfort in times of suffering, God's promise of wholeness and peace, and
God's love embodied in the community of faith.

A Prayer for Healing

Merciful God, constant source of all healing,
we give you thanks for all your gifts of strength and life,
and above all we thank you for the gift of your Son,
through whom we have health and salvation.
As we wait for that day when there will be no more pain,
help us by your Holy Spirit
to be assured of your power in our lives
and to trust in your eternal love;
through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.
Amen.
