ALL SAINTS SUNDAY

Christ the King News

November 2, 2008

All Saints celebrates the baptized people of God, living and dead, who are the body of Christ. As November heralds the dying of the landscape in many northern regions, the readings and liturgy call us to remember all who have died in Christ and whose baptism is complete. At the Lord's table we gather with the faithful of every time and place, trusting that the promises of God will be fulfilled and that all tears will be wiped away in the new Jerusalem.

Alexander Daniel Jones

A few weeks ago I was asked to talk about myself, what I'm like, what I like to do. And I kept putting it off and putting it off 'till I realized I was running out of time. But when I finally sat down to write... I couldn't think of what to write. So I decided that I might as well just write from the heart, which always works for me. I'm your every-day average teen, I like to hang out with my friends, go to bed too late and sleep too long. I've always been a fan of exercise and try to do at least a little every day. I enjoy reading, writing stories and I've even dabbled a bit in sketching. I believe that everyone has their great passions; something that drives them to achieve greatness and mine is photography. Ask anyone and they'll tell you just how big of a shutterbug I am and that's where I'm most comfortable, behind the lens of a camera. My photo-craze has given me a great appreciation for the unparalleled beauty in its every form. I always have my camera with me when I go out, and it has also given me a great excuse to go camping, even fishing. And if there's one thing that I truly love besides photography and the outdoors, it's being there to help someone. It's like what Emily Dickinson once said. "If I could stop one heart from breaking, I shall not live in vain, if I can ease one life the aching or cool one pain, or help one fainting robin unto his nest again, I shall not live in vain." So with that I say, there are two dates which will be remembered most when we are gone, but the one that truly matters is that little dash between them.

Richard Loren Otte

My name is Richard Otte and I am a sophomore in high school at Nashua High School South. I enjoy serving as an acolyte here at CTK and have had a wonderful confirmation experience. Some of you may or may not recognize me from the Mayfest auction we have yearly. For the past two years I have been an auctioneer at Mayfest and have enjoyed every minute of it. Some other extra-curricular activities that I participate, are that I am a pianist, trombonist, and a Boy Scout. I am generally a very creative person and spend my free time doing things that relate to creativity, such as building video games, or board games. I plan to help improve my involvement in my faith community by becoming a counter and a cup assistant. My days as an acolyte for CTK are probably over, I would enjoy being a cup assistant more. I have been an "assistant" counter for around two years and cannot wait to receive the fully-fledged counter status.

Prayer Around the Cross during the week
Wednesday, November 11th at 7:30 pm

Have you ever wanted to spend time in contemplative prayer?
Have you ever wanted to sing simpler songs without accompaniment, or with a single flute?
Have you ever considered the power of lighting a candle in the dark?
Do you want to spend more time praying for others?

Prayer Around the Cross gathers people for quiet prayer. The rough-hewn cross on the floor is our focus. Readings, prayers, and simple songs frame our a time with God and God's people. At the climax of the service, you are invited to light a candle as you pray for yourself and others.

World Community Day Friday, November 7, 10:00 AM

First Baptist Church, Hudson

Church Women United will celebrate World Community Day at the First Baptist Church in Hudson on Friday, November 7, with coffee at 10 AM and the service at 10:30. "God's Wisdom Sets Us Free" in the theme for this year's service. Discussion will include how we might minister to women in prison and also how we might be freed from self imposed limitations—how God's wisdom truly sets us free.

All are invited to join in this Celebration. For information contact Bobbie Knickerbocker, 579-0603.

Touching Lives through GIFTS OF HOPE...

We make a positive difference

FAIR TRADE has been brought to our community by our partners in this ministry, Equal Exchange and SERRV. In the words of Serrv artisans of the Mitra Bali Workshop in Indonesia:

“Why do we like working with fair traders? We get a fair price and, above all, we trust them. We do not have to worry about whether we’ll get paid.” Equal Exchange just celebrated 20 years of showing that a business can use FAIR TRADE and bring hope for families to not only get paid a fair price for a coffee, tea or cocoa bean crop, but also to give back to their community in building clinics and schools. We can be thankful that the ELCA has partnered with these organizations and we can see that we get “good Value for our money” when we spend it in the MARKETPLACE OF GIVING!

With the financial crisis we are experiencing now, our brothers and sisters in developing countries are also feeling great losses and need our support more than ever this year.

CTK has an opportunity to show our commitment again, as we give generously to the “gifts that keep on giving,” from Equal Exchange Coffee, Tea, chocolate and nuts, SERRV Handcrafts, ELCA Good Gifts, and Olive Oil from our companion synod the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land.

*We have a track record with Equal Exchange, so much so, that the Boston Globe and Lutheran World Relief have called us up to give our testimonies about these Fairly Traded goods!

Kathy and Bob Parks, who have led this ministry from the beginning, will gladly give you an order blank to complete

SERRV catalogs, with many unique handcrafts and Christmas items, will be available to take home, as Linnea Hallee leads this ministry.

The Good Gifts Catalog helps you honor family and friends with a gift that means more than an extra tie or box of candy, (except, of course, if it’s fair trade chocolate!) because you’re giving to the ELCA World Hunger Appeal and other ministries of the ELCA. Anna Addiss continues to help you with clever and meaningful gift tags to send.

*We continue with the Gift of Hope of olive oil from the Holy Land as we support the Fund for the Poor at Augusta Victoria Hospital to cover healthcare fees of patients unable to pay. The olive oil will come in hand blown bottles from Hebron.

Please support these ministries and the real people, who are sustained in life because we have given them the gift of HOPE...to feed their families, to have dignity in creating a work of art, and to survive!

Gifts of Hope are available to order Sundays:
November 2nd, 9th, and 16th.
